

Flora gives the devotion on “Are you a threat to Satan” from 1 Peter 1:6-7

- On two occasions, Satan tested men and agreed by God. Job 1:6-12, Luke 22:31-34
- Do you think Satan and Jesus ever discuss about you?
- In the two instances, Job and Peter are strong Christians, worthy of Satan to test
- Are my lives are a threat to the Devil? Ministers and Christian workers, and those who are fervent to serve the Lord.
- How much impact is our life? If we are doing anything worthwhile for God, Satan is here to attack.
  - Satan gives you plenty of opportunities to fail.
- Satan will attack the vessel and his testimony so people will not come to the Lord.
- If you fail, lean on the Lord and carry on.
- I Peter is writing in a time of severe persecution – “distressed by various trials”. Trials in the end to prove our faith.
- Gold now worth $1,340/oz and the impurities perishable under extreme fire, only pure gold can survive.
- Trials are necessary to prove our Faith.
- When proven, will receive praises and honor on his return.
